- persons allowed to sign petitions;
 - determination of signature validity; and
 - validity of signatures by authorized officers of property-owning corporations.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

The petition requirements for cities are modified. When a petition seeks annexation, any duly authorized corporate officer may sign a petition under oath on behalf of a corporation.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) Currently, many cities face challenges when the officer of a corporation has to attach a copy of the bylaws to an annexation petition, since the bylaws do not state who has the authority to sign a petition. The process of attaining signatures for an annexation petition may take a city years, and in that time the corporate officer may have changed or the corporation may have dissolved. The current law does not provide a framework to address corporations who do not have bylaws. Allowing the corporate officer to sign an annexation petition under oath will help streamline the annexation process.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: Representative Moeller, prime sponsor; Dave Williams, Association of Washington Cities; Suzan Wallace, City of Vancouver; and Steve Stuart, Clark County.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
